These fees will generally include a management fee and other fund expenses. Further, transaction charges may apply when purchasing or selling securities. RWA does not share in any portion of the brokerage fees/transaction charges imposed by the custodian holding the client funds or securities. The client should review all fees charged by mutual funds, RWA, and others to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the client.

Item of Form (identify)	Answer
Item 7.C. & Item 8.C(9)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Retirement Wealth Advisors, Investment Adviser Representative, mo./2007 – Present OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES AND OTHER FINANCIAL AFFILIATIONS IARs of RWA may be licensed to sell insurance products through various independent insurance agencies. In some instances, certain IARs may sell insurance products through their independently owned insurance agency. In either case, these IARs, in their capacity as independent insurance agents, may sell insurance products to advisory clients. These individuals will receive normal and customary commissions as a result of selling insurance as well as advisory fees for providing advisory services through RWA. Clients are hereby advised that such commissions and advisory fees are separate and apart from the fees charged by the Firm. Clients are under no obligation, contractually or otherwise, to purchase insurance products or receive investment advice through these associated persons in their separate capacities as insurance agents and/or advisory representatives of RWA. However, if the client freely chooses to implement the plan through such individuals, the investment adviser used will be RWA, and commissions/fees will be earned in addition to any fees paid for advisory services provided by the Firm. Separate and distinct from RWA, IARs of RWA may be Registered Representatives of CAMAS, Inc. (“CAMAS”), a registered broker/dealer. CAMAS and RWA are unrelated firms. IARs of RWA may suggest that clients place transactions through CAMAS, among others. If securities products offered by CAMAS are purchased through the Representative of CAMAS, normal commissions and fees would be earned; thus a conflict of interest may exist between their interests and those of advisory clients. Clients are under no obligation to purchase products recommended by IARs or to purchase products either through RWA or CAMAS.
Item 9.E.	PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS From time to time, RWA or persons associated with RWA may buy or sell securities that are recommended to its clients or securities in which its clients are invested. This presents a conflict of interest. To mitigate this conflict, it is RWA’s policy that associated persons of RWA shall not have priority over any client account in the purchase or sale of securities. Under certain circumstances, exceptions to the trading policy may be made. Code of Ethics RWA has adopted a Code of Ethics, the full text of which is available to clients and potential clients upon request. RWA strives to comply with all applicable laws and regulations governing its practices. Therefore, RWA has set forth guidelines for professional standards of conduct for its associated persons, the goal of which is to protect client interests at all times and to demonstrate its commitment to its fiduciary duties of honesty, good faith, and fair dealing with clients. All associated persons are expected to adhere strictly to these guidelines. RWA’s Code of Ethics requires that Associated Persons submit personal securities transactions and holdings reports to RWA which will be reviewed by a qualified representative of RWA on periodic basis. Associated persons are also required to report any violations of RWA’s Code of Ethics. Additionally, RWA maintains and enforces written policies reasonably designed to prevent the misuse or dissemination of material, non-public information about clients or their account holdings by RWA or any associated person.

Item 11.A.	CONDITIONS ON MANAGING ACCOUNTS Generally, RWA requires an account minimum of $250,000 for asset management services. However, in its sole discretion, RWA may waive or lower this minimum.
Item 11.B.	REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS Managed accounts are reviewed on an ongoing basis for discretionary accounts held by advisory clients. Reviews are conducted for the purpose of evaluating, reporting, and implementing the investment objective of each client. Client accounts may be reviewed more often depending on market conditions. The assets may be reallocated to keep the portfolio allocation consistent with the client's Investment Policy Statement. Accounts are reviewed by the IAR responsible for managing the account. For financial planning accounts, accounts are reviewed annually by the IAR assigned to the client account.
Item 12.A.(1), (2)	REPORTS TO CLIENTS RWA may provide clients with quarterly portfolio evaluations for managed accounts. In addition, clients will receive reports from the custodian holding client funds on at least a quarterly basis. Financial planning clients may receive written financial plans, which are designed to achieve the client's stated financial goals and objectives.
Item 12.B. & Item 13.A.	INVESTMENT OR BROKERAGE DISCRETION Clients can grant RWA complete discretion over the selection and amount of securities to be purchased or sold without obtaining their prior consent or approval. However, RWA's investment authority may be subject to specified investment objectives, guidelines and/or conditions imposed by the client. For example, a client may specify that at the time of purchase the investment in any particular stock or industry should not exceed specified percentages of the value of the portfolio and/or restrictions or prohibitions of transactions in the securities of a specific industry. Where the Firm enters into non-discretionary arrangements with clients, RWA will implement recommended transactions upon obtaining client approval. SUGGESTION OF BROKERS RWA will recommend that securities be purchased through facilities of TD Ameritrade Institutional ("TD Ameritrade"), FOLIOfn Institutional ("FOLIOfn") or ProFunds Distributors, Inc. ("ProFunds"), all of which are Member FINRA/SIPC. All firms recommended to clients for these services are independent and unaffiliated. It may be the case that the recommended broker charges higher fees or commission rates than another broker charges. Clients may utilize the broker/dealer of their choice and have no obligation to purchase or sell securities through such broker as RWA recommends. In suggesting a broker dealer based on discretionary authority or on behalf of a non-discretionary account, the Firm will endeavor to recommend those brokers or dealers that will provide quality services at reasonable commission rates. The reasonableness of commissions is based on several factors, including the broker's ability to provide professional services, competitive commission rates, volume discounts, execution price negotiations, and other services. The research products and services that RWA may receive from brokerage firms (e.g. TD

Item 13.B.	Ameritrade, FOLIOfn, ProFunds) may include financial publications, information about particular companies and industries, and other products or services that provide lawful and appropriate assistance to the Firm in the performance of its investment decision-making responsibilities. Such research products and services are provided to all investment advisers who utilize TD Ameritrade, FOLIOfn, ProFunds, and are not considered to be paid for with soft dollars. However, the commissions charged by a particular broker for a particular transaction, or set of transactions, may be greater than the amounts another broker who did not provide research services or products might charge. Directed Brokerage In limited circumstances and at the Firm's discretion, some clients may instruct RWA to use one or more particular brokers for the transactions in their accounts. Clients who may want to direct the Firm to use a particular broker should understand that this may prevent RWA from effectively negotiating brokerage compensation on their behalf and may also prevent RWA from obtaining the most favorable net price and execution. Moreover, clients that direct brokerage may incur additional costs for performance reporting. Thus, when directing brokerage business, clients should consider whether the commission expenses, execution, clearance, and settlement capabilities that they will obtain through their broker are adequately favorable in comparison to those that RWA would otherwise obtain for its clients. COMPENSATION FOR CLIENT REFERRALS Employee and non-employee (outside) solicitors, e.g. unaffiliated broker/dealers, investment advisers, accountants, attorneys, etc., who are directly responsible for bringing a client to RWA, may receive compensation from RWA for the client referral. Under these arrangements, the client does not pay higher fees than RWA's normal/typical advisory fees. Such arrangements will comply with the requirements set forth under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and/or the applicable state Securities Act, including a written agreement between RWA and the solicitor. Non-employee solicitors must provide a copy of RWA's ADV Part II (Disclosure Brochure) and a separate solicitor's disclosure statement regarding the relationship between the solicitor and RWA to the prospective client at the time of the solicitation or referral. The prospective client will be requested to acknowledge this arrangement prior to acceptance of the account for advisory services. Applicable state laws may require these persons to become either licensed or registered as representatives of RWA or as an independent investment adviser. MISCELLANEOUS Proxy Voting RWA does not take any action or render any advice with respect to the voting of proxies solicited by, or with respect to, the issuers of securities in which client's assets may be invested. Any proxy related materials received directly by RWA will be forwarded to the client for direct action. Class Action Lawsuits From time to time, securities held in the accounts of clients may be the subject of class action lawsuits. RWA has no obligation to determine if securities held by the client are subject to a pending or resolved class action lawsuit. RWA also has no duty to evaluate a client's eligibility or to submit a claim to participate in the proceeds of a securities class action settlement or verdict. Furthermore, RWA has no obligation or responsibility to initiate

Electronic mail is acceptable where appropriate if the client has authorized contact in this manner. Trading Errors On infrequent occasions, an error may be made in a client account. For example, a security may be erroneously purchased for a client account instead of sold. In such situations, RWA seeks to rectify the error by placing the client account in a similar position as it would have been had there been no error. Depending on the circumstances, various corrective steps may be taken. Privacy Policies The Firm views protecting its customers' private information as a top priority and, pursuant to the requirements of the federal Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Firm has instituted policies and procedures to ensure that customer information is kept private and secure. RWA does not disclose any nonpublic personal information about its customers or former customers to any nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted by law. In the course of servicing a client's account, RWA may share some information with its service providers, such as transfer agents, custodians, broker-dealers, accountants, and lawyers. RWA restricts internal access to nonpublic personal information about the client to those associated persons of the Firm who need access to that information in order to provide services to the client. As emphasized above, it has always been and will always be the Firm's policy never to sell information about current or former customers or their accounts to anyone. It is also the Firm's policy not to share information unless required to process a transaction, at the request of a customer or client, or as required by law. A copy of the Firm's privacy policy notice is provided to each client prior to, or contemporaneously with, the execution of the advisory agreement. Thereafter, RWA delivers a copy of the current privacy policy notice to its clients annually. Questions regarding this policy are directed to Jason Wenk, President of RWA, at (616) 667-2150.
